

For tickets to attend live concerts in the spacious hall at the Museum or for tours of the collection please see the website or call 0208 560 8108. If you would like to take a tour before a concert we offer a 50% tour discount for concert ticket holders. The café is fully licensed and open for refreshments.

Contact us:

0208 560 8108

visit@musicalmuseum.co.uk

399 High Street, Brentford, TW8 0DU | musicalmuseum.co.uk

Registered charity 802011. A company limited by guarantee, registered number 2401088 England

Travel

Coach/car: parking available, good access from motorways.

Train: Kew Bridge Station is a 5-10 minute walk.

Underground: Gunnersbury, then 237 or 267 bus stops outside museum.

Access

There is full disabled access and facilities.

Opening Details:

The Musical Museum is open Friday through to Sunday each week from 10am to 4pm with guided tours at 10.30am, 12.30pm and 2.30pm.

ORGAN CONCERTS 2022

Saturday 18 June at 2.30pm

Brett Wales

In Concert at the Wersi Electronic Organ

The Nottingham based musician makes a welcome debut at the Musical Museum. Brett plays keyboards, the electronic organ and piano, and is noted for his playing of the Wersi electronic organ to enthusiastic audiences across the country. He has a keen interest in recording his own arrangements and producing CD's at his recording studio.

Advance tickets £12.50 / £15.00 at the door

Sunday 26 June at 3.00pm

Richard Hills

Our fantastic resident organist is one of the very few organists to have bridged and mastered the divide between the classical and theatre organ worlds. He has been awarded several prestigious scholarships including one at Westminster Abbey. His international theatre organ career has been equally successful, and his concerts are in much demand in the USA. In 2013 and 2015 Richard was a soloist in the BBC Proms. Don't miss the chance hear him at the Museum's, wonderful Mighty Wurlitzer.

Advance tickets £15.00 including a glass of prosecco/£17.50 at the door

Sunday 3 July at 2.30pm

Donald MacKenzie

Short Silent Comedies with Wurlitzer accompaniment

Donald MacKenzie the renowned organist from London's Odeon Luxe Cinema Leicester Square, has played at many prestigious film premieres. He accompanies comedies starring some of the greats of the Silent era including Buster Keaton and Laurel & Hardy.

Advance tickets £15.00 including a glass of prosecco/£17.50 at the door

Sunday 17 July at 2.30pm

Matthew Bason
One Man Show

The popular pianist and organist, Matthew Bason, is a great entertainer. He plays both the Wurlitzer and electronic organ and is an accomplished vocalist. Sit back and enjoy a light-hearted and uplifting show.

Advance tickets £12.50/£15.00 at the door

Saturday 20 August at 2.30pm

Chris and Joanne Powell

Wurlitzer and Electronic Organs

Joanne and Chris Powell recently became trustees at the Musical Museum, and make a very welcome return to play in concert together. They have a broad repertoire including popular music from stage and screen and tour widely across the UK. Join us in what is bound to be a highly entertaining afternoon.

Advance tickets £15.00 including a glass of prosecco/£17.50 at the door

14 May, 04 June, 2 July, 13 August

Tea Dances

Strictly fun! A social afternoon of Ballroom, Latin & Sequence, dancing to a selection of popular dance tunes. All levels of ability are welcome. DJ s and hosts, David & Diane Whyte give a free dance lesson at 2.00pm.

Tickets £9.00 include tea/coffee or prosecco.

Saturday 3 & Sunday 4 September

Open House
Weekend

Join us for an exciting weekend with highlight tours of the collection, Wurlitzer organ demonstrations and live music from local musicians. Refreshments in the café, a barbecue, and FREE ENTRY, make this a great time to visit.

Saturday 3 & Sunday 4 September

Creative Mile

The inaugural, Creative Mile art trail in 2021, including museums and studios in Brentford, was a great success. We are delighted to participate again this year and look forward to hosting local artists and a diverse range of art. Come meet the artists, see their work, and follow the trail to our neighbours along the riverside. FREE ENTRY.

The Collection

Musical Museum tells the fascinating story of how people have captured and listened to music over the last four centuries. The collection includes an impressive array of instruments and inventions, including reproducing pianos, orchestrions, self-playing violins, pipe organs, gramophones & synthesizers. See and hear them in action.